

The Great Derbyshire Dales Fairtrade Bake Off

The Great Derbyshire Dales Fairtrade Bake Off forms part of the Fairtrade Fortnight Celebrations in the area.

The Fairtrade towns of Ashbourne, Bakewell, Darley Dale, Matlock and Wirksworth will each have a bake off heat. The finalists from each town will be entered into the Grand Final where the Derbyshire Dales Top Baker will receive their prestigious award from judges Andy Auld, baker from the Loaf and a judge from Divine Chocolate Company.

- Two categories a) adults b) 14 & under
- Entrants must bring their finished bake to Ashbourne Town Hall by 11.00am on Saturday 28th February for judging.
- The recipe must contain as many Fairtrade ingredients as possible. (Fairtrade packaging for ingredients to be brought to the competition to display alongside your bake & recipe)
- Marks will be given for presentation, taste, innovation and for use of Fairtrade ingredients
- The adult and the child finalist from each town will go forward to the Grand Final of the Great Derbyshire Dales Fairtrade Bake Off.
- The Grand Final will be held at Carsington Visitor Centre on Saturday 7th March at 3.00pm
- If you are one of the Ashbourne winners, you will win a prize and certificate. You will need to bake something for the Grand Final on Saturday 7th March. This can be the same recipe or something different!

Entry Form

Name

Address

Contact telephone number

Age if 14 or under

My bake is called

Don't forget to bring:

- Your finished bake
- Your recipe
- Packaging for Fairtrade ingredients

